MANAGERS REPORTS:

Chief Range Administrative Officer: Tami Popke

Tami thanked the Gravestocks for taking her place while she was on vacation. She hired 3 more office volunteers. She also hired a cleaning service to deep clean the classroom and office once a month.

Chief Range Safety Officer: Steve Myers

Steve announced he hired Dave Duncan to be his Security Assistant. We have 9 RSOs in training, for a total of 62 RSOs. He has been training with his supervisory RSOs.

Chief Maintenance Report: Ed Cook

Ed stated shooting bays D2 thru D5 all have cement shooting benches now. He also had the signs that were blocking the shooter's view to the side of the canopy supports. He plans to have a maintenance workday in January. The new cement pad for the handicap at the main range needs to be painted. The C Bays new lighting has timers and an electric plug. He will be ordering 120 tons of crushed fine for A-2.

Chief Marketing Report: Jack Culley

We invested $8,113.19 of the $9,000 Marketing Budget for the year. The merchandise report was given. The Crossroads of the West gun show will be at the fairgrounds this weekend. Jack has arranged for our club to have a display and has scheduled 8 volunteers to work the show. We will be offering our free shoot pass range medallions for half price at the show. At the President's request, these range medallions will be available for purchase in the range office starting December 1. Price is $20 each.

Events Coordinator: Chase Seegmiller

Chase gave an update on current events.

Membership Report: Pres. Popke gave the report for Patti Rogers. We will be making a new policy for life members. Will discuss at next meeting.

RSO/RAO Scheduling Report: Hugo Galante

Hugo stated he still had several shifts not filled for November. The new website calendar is not working yet. President Popke stated he is still looking for a replacement for Hugo for the Scheduler position.

SUPPORT STAFF REPORTS:

Nomination committee: Susie Thompson, Chairperson – Elections currently being conducted.

Fun Shoot: Larry Bruley: Larry stated they had good turn outs lately for the fun shoots.

Unfinished Business:

- New Website - President Popke showed everyone the new website and thanked Catherine Muller for working very hard behind the scenes.

New Business:

- Handicap concrete pad on main range parking lot finished
- No meeting in December
- Range closed Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day

- Vote: Expansion of Women's shoot free day to include shooting bays– last Sunday of each month. Tammy Hellberg motioned to approve; Jack Culley seconded. All members unanimously approved.
- Larry Bruley brought the plans for the proposed shoot house in A-5 bay. The Board discussed. Pres. Popke motioned to approve and Hugo Galante seconded. The Board voted unanimously to approve the building, and to have it mostly available for members only.
- Pres. Popke thanked Daren Short for the donations that allowed us to pay for the lighting in the C bays, the handicap parking pad, and the balance to go towards the shoot house.

- Membership questions, statements or requests:
  (Any agenda items requested will be moved to next month's agenda.)

  1. A question came up regarding whether a lifetime membership can be purchased. The answer is no.

  2. A question came up whether we would be replacing the steel challenge bay and the answer was no. It was mentioned that the Fun Shoots offered twice monthly offer steel challenges.

  3. Bob Geminert is looking for a portable welder to make repairs on our steel targets.

Call for motion to adjournment:

Any SOP updates? No, just policy of women shooting for free on the entire range the last Sunday of each month.
